

Always to eternity
by Nishaun Smith

You secured me all day long.
Potent angels kept me strong.
Now again I've done you wrong,
now again I've done you wrong.

Lord, what can I do I'm weak.
Teach me to hear when you speak.
Good I want, evil I seek,
good I want, evil I seek.

Heal me from that dragon's bite.
Against Satan help me fight.
Help me Lord to lust for right,
help me Lord to lust for right.

Shown love all I knew was hate,
your hope took my hopeless fate.
To dwell there, can hardly wait,
to dwell there, can hardly wait.

Where evil can't come for me.
In your place I want to be.
Always to eternity,
always to eternity.
