

border
by Nishaun Smith

What is the difference between love and obsession?
The only border is rejection.
What is the difference with rage and an impassioned heart?
Did the savior sanction the start.
What is the difference between inspiration and insanity?
Do the perpetrators of strange science retain their humanity?
Is there a difference in happiness or sadness?
It is easy to make someone smile but hard to end ones distress.
Is the progress of war for peace or just cruelty?
Ask the master when it lands in his realty.
Tell me why the dead have such apathy?
What other purpose is there but to lay down and reflect on life's tragedy.
What tremendously terrible secret does a mad man babel?
That, except man, all the living,
can interpret natures poetic retelling of God's true-fable.
